Prep Time: 60 minutes

Cook Time: 2 hours

4 pounds venison, elk, or beef (can substitute the meat)

Water

2 1/2 cups suet, finely chopped or grated*

7 1/2 cups chopped tart apples

3 cups liquid (liquid from meat of your choice it was cooked in)

5 cups granulated sugar

3 cups apple cider

1 cup molasses

1/2 cup cider vinegar

3 cups raisins

2 tablespoons ground cinnamon

1 tablespoon ground cloves

2 tablespoons ground allspice

2 tablespoons ground nutmeg

Juice of 2 lemons

Juice of 2 oranges

1 cup brandy or sherry (can use or not use)

* Suet is a solid white animal fat. The best Suet comes from the fat that grows around the kidneys in cows and sheep. You can purchase packages of suet from your local butcher or from the meat department of your local grocery store. It then needs to be coarsely grated to make it ready to use. It also must be kept refrigerated prior to use and used within a few days of purchase, just like meat. You can also substitute lard, shortening, butter, or bacon fat.

Instructions: Trim fat from meat of your choice and discard. In a large heavy pan over medium heat, place meat; cover with water and simmer until the meat is tender. Remove from heat and refrigerate meat in the cooking liquid overnight.

Remove from refrigerator and remove meat from liquid. Remove all fat from top of liquid; discard the fat and reserve the remaining liquid. Separate meat from bones, discard bones. Chop cooked meat into small cubes.

In a large pot, combine meat cubes, beef suet, apples, reserved liquid, sugar, apple cider, molasses, cider vinegar, raisins, cinnamon, cloves, allspice, nutmeg, lemon juice, and orange juice; simmer for 2 hours. remove from heat. Add brandy or sherry and mix together.

It is best to let mincemeat stand at least a couple of weeks before using. I store mine in the refrigerator. Freeze in air-tight containers for longer storage.

Lakewood Camp by Eva Bradley

It's great to be at Lakewood Camp
 To join in all the fun
 To see familiar faces
 And to greet them one by one.

In these beautiful surroundings
 With the lake right at the door,
 Each year seems more delightful
 Than it was the year before.

The kindness of the counsellors,
 Their cheery friendly ways,
 Gives so much added pleasure
 To a Camper's busy day.

The swimming pool, the tournaments
 That kept us on our toes
 The sing-songs and let's not forget
 The Camper's Show of Shows.

Our banquet night with all the fun
 Of dressing in our best,
 The toast proposed, the happy talk
 At the tables with the rest.

The many things we got to do
 Can't all be listed here,
 But we can breathe a fervent prayer
 That we'll be back next year.
